COURSE REQUIREMENTS

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Writing and reporting news and feature stories using both traditional and new media techniques with an emphasis on developing sources and advanced skills.

PREREQUISITE:

JOUR 2121

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

- The Associated Press Stylebook, (New York: Basic Books, 2015). ISBN 9780917360619. Students should have this book from 2121. Earlier editions (2012, 2013 and 2014) are acceptable.
- The Little Style Book by Joe Hayden (Marion Street Press, 2015). ISBN 1936863950.
- A smart phone and access to a laptop or a desktop computer. Students cannot rely on using university computer labs. Journalists today need to be in constant contact with the Internet and social media, so make sure you have the devices to make that happen.
- A camera or smart phone for taking digital photographs.

RECOMMENDED MATERIALS:

- Kessler, Lauren and McDonald Duncan When Words Collide: A Media Writer's Guide to Grammar and Style (Thomson-Wadsworth, 2001). Students may have this from Media Writing. No need to buy an updated version.
- The Elements of Style Illustrated (Penguin Books, paperback reprint, 2007)

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

- Assignments will be completed both in and outside the classroom, so attendance and participation in class are vital. Class time is also valuable for discussions about news and upcoming assignments, so please be on time. Students who arrive more than 15 minutes late will be counted as absent. It is your responsibility to sign the attendance sheet if you arrive late to class.
- Here's how attendance works: I'm not interested in hearing excuses. You get three free passes during the semester. After you cash in the passes, missed classes are reflected in your final grade. For example, if you miss one additional class, your final grade drops a letter grade. If you miss two more classes, your grade drops again. So if you miss six classes, your final grade drops two letters.

- Be sure to join our class Facebook page, because if you miss a class, it is your responsibility to find out from a classmate what is due. Do not count on me to answer messages or emails about missed work. If you are unsure about deadlines, check the ecourseware drop box dates. Do not rely on assignment dates printed on the syllabus.
- There are no exams in reporting, but quizzes may be given on assigned readings, classroom discussions, current events, and AP style. You cannot make up quizzes, but you will be able to make up one missed quiz with extra credit assignments.
- You must stay informed about the news and about newsmakers. It is impossible to be a good reporter unless you are informed about local, national and international news, as well as the media industry. To facilitate media literacy, current event quizzes will be given regularly, and students will participate in class Facebook page discussions on developments in the media industry.
- All assignments must be filed to the ecourseware drop box by midnight (11:59 p.m.) on the day they are due. Late assignments will NOT be accepted. It is extremely important that you recognize the importance of deadlines in news and learn to file assignments on time.
- All assignments must be written in third person in a structure that conforms to standard media writing guidelines. Assignments will be graded on content, story structure, word count, grammar, punctuation and AP style. One point may be deducted from story grades for every mistake in AP style, spelling, punctuation and grammar, so edit your work carefully.
- Reporters may publish class stories in the Helmsman, but only AFTER they are graded and returned.
- Additionally, all assignments must conform to these specifications: All stories must be filed in a word document, double-spaced with indented paragraphs, 11 point Verdana type. All documents must be identified with a date, a byline and a headline. DO NOT FILE ASSIGNMENTS IN THE TEXT DOCUMENT FORMAT PROVIDED BY APPLE ON MACS. If assignments don't meet these specifications, they will not be graded, and students will receive a zero.
- And finally, assignments for 3120 may involve several components. You must complete all parts of the assignment to receive a grade. Assignments that are incomplete will not be graded and students will receive a zero.

OTHER ISSUES:

- Reporting 3120 continues to develop the skills learned in media writing with increased emphasis on developing sources and alternative story telling. Reporters today need to work in different ways on multiple platforms, so this class also will integrate more traditional reporting and writing with photography, headlines, captions and social media.
- More specific reporting and writing goals for this class include:
  - Developing storytelling skills with words and photographs
  - Writing with ease, accuracy, and speed
  - Developing sources
  - Polishing writing mechanics and AP style
  - Reporting with social media
  - Writing headlines and captions
  - Publishing stories in print and/or online
  - Building professional online portfolios

GRADING:

- Class assignments: 70 percent (includes online portfolio)
- Current event quizzes, AP style quizzes, homework, and in-class work: 20 percent
- Attendance and class participation: 10 percent

TENTATIVE TIMETABLE

A flexible syllabus is necessary so we can respond to news events as they occur in real time. Deadlines for assignments may change, so check assignment due dates regularly.

FIVE PILLARS FOR JOUR 3120

- Professionalism: Students learn the skills required to work in media today by practicing more advanced applications of the basics learned in 2121: ethics, deadlines, information gathering, and writing news stories and features. Increasingly, work is evaluated on professional standards. Students learn how to query editors with story ideas and how to publish stories in print and online.
- Writing: Students continue to work on writing mechanics and AP style, but they write more complex stories, learning to integrate national sources, descriptive writing, and statistical information into their work. Students also are introduced to headline writing and caption writing.
- Multimedia: Although students write traditional news stories throughout the semester, they also learn alternative story telling techniques using photography, smart phone apps, and social media. All assignments in 3120 include a multi-media component to bring added value to written work.
- Critical Thinking: Students work independently and as a team to develop story ideas and to target stories for publication. In 3120, they write more complex stories, learning to organize multiple sources and research into both multi-media and traditional print formats. Students also learn to develop trend stories and follow stories from breaking news.
- Media Literacy: Students stay informed about news and the media with social media, phone apps, and local and national newspapers available on campus. Media experts from print, broadcast, and online publications also guest lecture to share professional experiences and opportunities with students.

ASSESSMENT OF STUDENT LEARNING FOR JOURNALISM PROGRAM:

The Council seeks to promote student learning and encourages experimentation and innovation. Assessment is a system of evaluation of student learning at the course or unit level (as opposed to grading at the individual level). Three criteria should guide assessment of student learning:

- Awareness: familiarity with specific information, including facts, concepts, theories, laws and regulations, processes and effects.
- Understanding: assimilation and comprehension of information, concepts, theories and ideas.
- Application: competence in relating and applying skills, information, concepts, theories and ideas to the accomplishment of tasks.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENT:

All Department of Journalism undergraduate students are required to develop and maintain an active portfolio of their work. Students are to begin the portfolio in JOUR 2121 and contribute to it during every skills course thereafter. The portfolio should contain samples of the student's work from courses and/or professional experience and should develop as the student builds skills. Portfolios will undergo a final review while students are enrolled in the capstone course for their concentrations.

EMAIL:

You must have your UM email account activated. If you are using another provider, such as Google, you are required to have your UM email forwarded to that account. Go to <http://iam.memphis.edu> to implement forwarding of UM email. You are required to check your email daily. You are responsible for complying with any email sent to you by your professor or the university.

MOBILE PHONES AND LAPTOPS:

Some classes require a tablet, laptop or a smartphone to be used during class or to complete class assignments. Others do not allow them. Your instructor will set the policy for her/her specific class.

ATTENDANCE:

Class attendance is mandatory in the Department of Journalism. You may be assigned a failing grade for the semester for nonattendance, or habitual late arrival. Students are permitted three total unexcused absences without penalty. After three absences, the student's final grade will be deducted one letter grade for each absence. After seven unexcused absences, the student will fail the course. Absences for illness and other catastrophic emergencies, such as a death in the family, must be documented (e.g. doctor's note or obituary) to be excused from the total absence count. Students with excessive unexcused absences are encouraged to withdraw from the course prior to the drop deadline.

DEADLINES:

All deadlines are firm. This is journalism and mass communications. Assignments turned in late will NOT be graded. Late work is not accepted unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Students are NOT permitted to make up assignments, quizzes, tests, etc. that occurred during an unexcused absence. Students who will miss class and/or a deadline because of an excused absence are expected to notify the instructor immediately upon knowing the absence will occur; exceptions will be made for reasonable circumstances. Students who are absent during the final exam are not permitted to make up the exam and will earn a grade of 0, which might result in failure of the course.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

In addition to university-wide policies stated in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Department of Journalism considers making up quotes from sources, turning in substantially the same assignment for credit in two different courses, a student receiving any assistance from others for work assigned to be done on his/her own, and violations of copyright law as acts of academic dishonesty punishable to the degree determined appropriate by the course instructor and department chair. Penalties might include grade reductions or dismissal of the student from the university.

“Your written work may be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for an evaluation of the originality of your ideas and proper use and attribution of sources. As part of this process, you may be required to submit electronic as well as hard copies of your written work, or be given other instructions to follow. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process and that the assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com's restricted access database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in such documents. Any assignment not submitted according to the procedures given by the instructor may be penalized or may not be accepted at all.” (Office of Legal Counsel, October 17, 2005)

Intellectual property and copyright guidelines

1. Ideas cannot be copyrighted, but the way they are described can.
2. Anything set down in a tangible form, i.e., written, is by law copyrighted.
3. If, in a paraphrase, your work is “substantially similar” to a copyrighted work, you are guilty of copyright infringement.
4. A citation indicates where you got material. However, that portion you do not show as a direct quote must be “substantially original” to you. In other words, you can't just paste in something from another's work, put a citation at the bottom and call it your own. You need a full rewrite in your own words and syntax so the unquoted material is “substantially original” to you.

Plagiarism: From UM Student Handbook: The term “plagiarism” includes, but is not limited to, the use, by paraphrase or direct quotation, of the published or unpublished work of another person without full or clear acknowledgement. It also includes the unacknowledged use of materials prepared by another person or agency engaged in the selling of term papers or other academic materials.

ONLINE SETEs:

You are urged to complete the SETEs evaluation of this course. Once your instructor has posted your grade, you can immediately see that grade, provided you completed a teacher evaluation for that class. How to access your evaluation forms: Log in using your UUID and email password; click on the gray “Student” tab; complete an evaluation for each course listed and hit the “Submit” button at the bottom of the form. It will only take a few minutes of your time. We take the evaluations very seriously and use them to improve courses and instructional quality. Your feedback is essential and will be appreciated.

DISABILITY:

Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact me privately to discuss your specific needs. Please contact the Office for Disability Services at 901-678-2880 in 110 Wilder Tower to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities.

DIVERSITY:

Students are required to respect the differences of others and treat all persons with respect. Discriminatory, derogatory and threatening language or behavior will not be tolerated. Further, students are expected to consider their work through a diverse mind. Mass communications reach a mass audience, and students should be aware of how those messages are received by a diverse audience.

WEATHER POLICY:

Check with local media and the University of Memphis website regarding inclement weather. If the university is closed or classes are canceled, this course will not meet. However, students will still be responsible for that day’s work.

AP STYLE AND GRAMMAR:

All written work in this class should follow the AP Stylebook and accepted rules of grammar and punctuation. If you don’t know the style for a particular phrase, look it up or ask your classmates or the instructor.
