COURSE REQUIREMENTS

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Familiarization with content analysis, survey research, data analysis, and field studies as practiced by reporters, editors, and public relations decision makers; modern research techniques and class project using computer analysis.

PREREQUISITE:

Graduate status.

COURSE OVERVIEW:

At its core, graduate study is research. To that end, this course develops the understanding and skills needed to conduct mass communication research and apply it to a communications problem or phenomenon. The course will cover both qualitative and quantitative approaches to communication research. Students will learn the common scientific methods of inquiry. This graduate seminar lays a foundation to conduct a research project in either professional settings or academic settings.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:

Berger, A. (2014). Media and Communication Research Methods: An Introduction to Qualitative and Quantitative Approaches, 3rd ed. Los Angeles: Sage.

Wimmer, R. D., & Dominick, J. R. (2014). Mass media research: An introduction, 10th ed. Boston, MA: Wadsworth Cengage Learning.

Note: Several additional required readings are posted to Courseware for each week.

GRADING:

Article/method reviews + Assigned Topic Presentation	20 percent
Research Paper Component (Prospectus, Method, Results, Discussion and Conclusion)	15 percent
Statistical Exercises and Various Exercises	8 percent
Research Colloquium	2 percent
Weekly quizzes	15 percent
Comprehensive Exam	10 percent
Research Paper	25 percent
Research Paper Presentation	5 percent

Number grades translate into these letter grades: A = 90-100; B = 80-89; C = 70-79; D = 60-69; F = < 60.

ASSIGNMENTS

ARTICLE/METHOD REVIEWS + Assigned Topic Presentation (Four Reviews, various deadlines; one assigned topic presentation) 20 percent

Students are to be assigned four research articles to review throughout the semester. The student should read the article and write a 250-word critique of the article, with particular attention to the method addressed in the article; each student will be assigned one topic to present to the class

Research Paper Components (Prospectus, Method, Results, Discussion and Conclusion) 15 percent

Statistical Exercises and Various Other Exercises 8 percent

(Throughout the semester, based on the topic under discussion, there will be various related exercises for students to work on. They may be statistics related or they may be sampling technique related)

Research Colloquium Attendance and Reflection Paper 2 percent

Graduate students must attend and write a one-page reflection paper about at least one Research Colloquium sponsored by the Department. Attendance and papers will count for at least 2% of your course final grade. Feb. 24, March 24, April 21. All at are Noon in 212 MJ. Those who cannot attend will receive instructions about remote viewing from your instructor.

Weekly Quizzes (Various deadlines) 15 percent

Comprehensive EXAM (May 1) 10 percent

RESEARCH PAPER (Various deadlines) 25 percent

Approximately 25-page research paper addressing a phenomenon in journalism and mass communications. Student must conduct original research for the paper.

RESEARCH PRESENTATION (April 24) 5 percent

Professional presentation of research paper in class. Students will prepare a 10-minute presentation and be prepared for question and answer.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT RESEARCH PAPER

PROSPECTUS: Due Jan. 30

1. The prospectus will begin by FIRST writing the questions your paper will attempt to answer.
2. The prospectus will explain your topic briefly (1-2 pages).
3. The prospectus will outline the direction and scope of your paper as well as an overview of the method and analysis procedure.

PROPOSAL or Method + Preceding Chapters: Due March 6

In total, your proposal should be about 10 pages long. It should include the following sections:

1. Begin with a complete introduction that explains the journalism and mass communication problem or phenomenon you are researching. Your introduction should outline the procedure by which you will conduct your research.
2. Write a complete academic literature review about previous scholarship related to your subject. Focus on journalism and mass communication journals, such as Journalism and Mass Communication Quarterly, Mass Communication & Society, the Journal of Communication, Journal of Broadcasting and Electronic Media, New Media & Society and others published by the Association for Education in Journalism and Mass Communication or the International Communication Association. This literature review should support your argument and identify the scholarly gap that your study will answer.
3. Write a methodology that explains the procedure for data collection, sampling, and analysis.
4. Any tools needed for data collection (questionnaire, code book, interview guide, etc.).

RESEARCH PAPER: Due April 28

Build on your proposal and complete an original research project.

1. Your papers will be graded on content, including writing quality, comprehensiveness of research, adherence to complete and proper citation style, grammar, punctuation and spelling. All of these will be analyzed to determine a final paper grade.
2. Use third-person, active voice.
3. Within your paper, you will have sections addressing introduction, literature review, method, results, discussion, conclusion, and references.
4. Your written work will be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for an evaluation of the originality of your ideas and proper use and attribution of sources. By taking this course, you agree that your paper may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com's restricted access database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism.

SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

Note: This schedule is subject to change based on the class situations. The professor reserves the right to change the schedule. Please get the updated details about assignments, reading materials, and related class materials from elearn courseware.

WEEK 1	JAN. 16	NO CLASS
WEEK 2	JAN. 23	Define Research and Library Search (Assign Prospectus)
WEEK 3	JAN. 30	Qualitative Research: Interview (Prospectus due)
WEEK 4	FEB. 6	Qualitative Research: Historical Analysis
WEEK 5	FEB. 13	Qualitative Research: Focus Group
WEEK 6	FEB. 20	Qualitative Research: Intensive Interview
WEEK 7	FRB. 27	Quantitative Research: Content analysis (Assign Method)
WEEK 8	MARCH 6	SPRING BREAK (Method + Preceding Chapters due)

WEEK 9	MARCH 13	Quantitative Research: Surveys
WEEK 10	MARCH 20	Quantitative Research: Content Analysis (Assign Result)
WEEK 11	MARCH 27	Case Studies Statistic analysis (Result due)
WEEK 12	APRIL 3	Statistic analysis (Assign Conclusion & Discussion)
WEEK 13	APRIL 10	Ethics Statistic analysis (Conclusion & Discussion due)
WEEK 14	APRIL 17	APA Style WORKSHOP
WEEK 15	APRIL 24	PAPER PRESENTATION (Entire paper due April 28)
Week 16	MAY 1	Comprehensive EXAM (online) 5:30-7:30 p.m.

ADDITIONAL ASSIGNMENT:

Graduate students must attend and write a one-page reflection paper about at least one Research Colloquium sponsored by the Department. Attendance and papers will count for at least 2% of your course final grade. Dates for the colloquia are: Friday, Feb. 24, Friday, March 24 and Friday, April 21. All at are Noon in 212 MJ. Those who cannot attend will receive instructions about remote viewing from your instructor.

Students enrolled in more than one course (JOUR 7075, 7350, 7412 and 7530) may write multiple reflections of one research presentation as long as the topic is customized to the individual class. For example, for JOUR 7075, a student should reflect on the research, while for 7530, a student should reflect on the use of visuals.

DEPARTMENT POLICIES

PORTFOLIO REQUIREMENT:

All students in the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media are required to develop and maintain an active portfolio of their work. Students are to begin the portfolio in JOUR 2121 and contribute to it from every course thereafter. The portfolio should contain samples of the student's work from his/her courses and/or professional experience and should develop as the student builds skills. Portfolios will undergo a final, external review while students are enrolled in the capstone course for their majors.

Students may use any type of web hosting for their portfolios, but it must have an independent and professional URL. The department requires students to use WordPress to build their portfolio sites. Students are encouraged to consider purchasing a URL and hosting if they plan to use the portfolio for a long term, but must keep the portfolio active for six months following graduation from the University of Memphis.

Students should have a professional email address they plan to use throughout their professional life, via a common email service, such as Gmail or Yahoo.

All portfolios must contain the following items:

- Samples of work from courses and/or professional activities. (Example: Broadcasting students must include a video reel)
- A current résumé
- A personal profile
- Contact information/means of contact
- Social media links

Students might wish to include a blog, video reels, photograph galleries, SoundSlides presentations, design PDFs, audio files, and Storify pieces as examples of professional work. The professional work should ultimately be tailored to the career the student seeks after graduation. Thus, each student's portfolio should show a unique blend of work.

EMAIL:

You must have your UM email account activated. If you are using another provider such as Google, you are required to have your UM email forwarded to that account. Go to the <http://iam.memphis.edu> website to implement forwarding of UM email. You are required to check your email daily. You are responsible for complying with any email sent to you by your professor or the University.

MOBILE PHONES AND LAPTOPS:

Some classes require a tablet, laptop or a smartphone. Others do not. Your instructor will set the policy for her/her specific class.

ATTENDANCE:

Class attendance is mandatory in the Department of Journalism and Strategic Media. You may be assigned a failing grade for the semester for nonattendance, or habitual late arrival. No late work will be accepted without prior arrangements, which are acceptable to your professor. Students may not be permitted to make up any missing work unless it is for an absence due to illness or other catastrophic emergency such as a death in the family that can be documented (e.g. with a doctor's note or a copy of the newspaper obituary). This is a professional program for journalists who are expected to understand and comply with deadlines. If you have some problem making it to class on time make arrangements to fix the problem or consider taking another class. You should consider this class your "job" in the educational process and be on time just as you would elsewhere.

CHEATING:

In addition to university-wide policies stated in the Code of Student Rights and Responsibilities, the Department of Journalism considers making up quotes from sources, turning in substantially the same assignment for credit in two different courses, or a student receiving any assistance from others for work assigned to be done on his/her own, as acts of cheating punishable to the degree determined appropriate by the course instructor and department chair. That may include grade reductions or seeking dismissal of the student from the university.

Further, as this is a journalism/mass communication class, students are expected to comply with copyright law, and must have sufficient permission to use any copyrighted materials used in creative projects, unless otherwise informed in cases of exercises or reproduction.

“Your written work may be submitted to Turnitin.com, or a similar electronic detection method, for an evaluation of the originality of your ideas and proper use and attribution of sources. As part of this process, you may be required to submit electronic as well as hard copies of your written work, or be given other instructions to follow. By taking this course, you agree that all assignments may undergo this review process and that the assignment may be included as a source document in Turnitin.com’s restricted access database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism in such documents. Any assignment not submitted according to the procedures given by the instructor may be penalized or may not be accepted at all.” (Office of Legal Counsel, October 17, 2005)

ONLINE SETEs:

You are urged to complete the SETEs evaluation of this course. Once your instructor has posted your grade, you can immediately see that grade, provided you completed a teacher evaluation for that class. How to access your evaluation forms: Log in using your UUID and email password; click on the gray “Student” tab; complete an evaluation for each course listed and hit the “Submit” button at the bottom of the form. It will only take a few minutes of your time. We take the evaluations very seriously and use them to improve courses and instructional quality. Your feedback is essential and will be appreciated.

DEADLINES:

Remember there’s a reason “DEAD” makes up half the word “deadline.” All deadlines are firm. This is journalism and strategic media. If you get into trouble, talk to your instructor. Exceptions will be made for reasonable circumstances if the student notifies the instructor prior to the due date.

AP STYLE AND GRAMMAR:

All written work in this class should follow the AP Stylebook and accepted rules of grammar and punctuation. If you don’t know the style for a particular phrase, look it up or ask your classmates or the instructor.

DISABILITY:

Any student who feels s/he may need an accommodation based on the impact of a disability should contact me privately to discuss your specific needs. Please contact the Office for Disability Services at 901-678-2880 in 110 Wilder Tower Hall to coordinate reasonable accommodations for students with documented disabilities.

DIVERSITY:

Students are required to respect the differences of others and treat all persons with respect. Discriminatory, derogatory and threatening language or behavior will not be tolerated. Further, students are expected to consider their work through a diverse mind. Mass communications reach a mass audience, and students should be aware of how those messages are received by a diverse audience.

WEATHER POLICY:

Always check with local media and the University of Memphis website regarding inclement weather. If the university is closed or classes are canceled, this course will not meet. However, students will still be responsible for that day's work.
