

High School Special Privileges Registration Form University Libraries, University of Memphis

The High School Special Privileges card is available to area high school students whose research requires access to the University Libraries' collection. Referral by the high school librarian is required and indicates that the student has exhausted the resources of his or her high school library. For students under the age of 18, parental approval is required. This approval indicates parental willingness to assume financial responsibility for all fines and fees accrued by the student. It also indicates that the parent or guardian acknowledges his or her child will be using the University Libraries.

Libraries & High School Special Privileges Card Policies:

NOTE: Failure to abide by these provisions will result in the cancellation of your card.

- Your card is good for one year and is renewable; it is not transferable.
- You may check out up to 5 books.
- You must present your Special Privilege card to check out books.
- The loan period for books is 14 days and books are renewable online using your last name as your username and the barcode number on your card as your password.
- Books may be recalled for use by another patron after 7 days.
- You are personally and financially responsible for materials charged on your card.
- If you lose your card, notify us immediately; there is a $10 replacement fee.
- Access to library databases is only available when you are in the library logged on as a guest; guest logon is limited to 2 hours per day.
- Fines will accrue at the rate of 25 cents per day per book for 14 days. After 14 days, the borrower will be charged a $7.50 overdue fine, plus the replacement cost of the material and a non-refundable $10 processing fee per item.
- The University Libraries does not restrict, monitor, or deny access to any library materials or information, including the Internet, for any library user, regardless of age or content. We are committed to the level of freedom of expression and access to information characteristic of a university library.

Your signature on this form and use of the High School Special Privileges card indicates that you have read this information and agree to abide by the provisions.
