THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS.
School of Public Health

United Nations
Academic Impact

2024-2025 RE-AIM PUBLIC HEALTH IDEAS HACKATHON

The University of Memphis School of Public Health is excited to invite high school students to participate in the 2024-2025 Public Health Hackathon. A hackathon is a fast-paced, collaborative competition event where students like you come together to brainstorm, design, and build creative solutions to real-world challenges.This is your chance to tackle real-world health challenges and drive impactful change!

3 GOOD HEALTH AND WELL-BEING   4 QUALITY EDUCATION   11 SUSTAINABLE CITIES AND COMMUNITIES   17 PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

#1 REGISTER YOUR TEAM

Go to https://forms.office.com/r/U9MNPKiGkJ or scan the QR Code below here to register yourself or your team and reserve a spot in the Hackathon!

- Registration Deadline: January 24
- Abstract Deadline: February 10
- Initial Screening: February 17
- Finalist Notification: March 3
- Final Pitch: March 17
- Winner Announcement: March 31

#2 PREPARE YOUR PROJECT

Problem Identification

Idea Generation

Project Design

Pitching

Prepare for the competition with four workshops that will help refine your ideas and improve your skills
Sign up here at https://www.memphis.edu/publichealth/initiatives/hackathon-2024-2025.php#workshops

#3 APPLY AND SUBMIT

- Go to https://forms.office.com/r/sX97cdNh5T or scan the QR Code to send in your abstract and submit the Hackathon Application.
- Identify a public health concern, develop a solution, integrate digital technology in one aspect of the project, begin project design.
- Follow the instructions below and on our website for writing a 500-word abstract.
- Apply and submit your abstract entry for consideration.

BRING YOUR PASSION FOR MAKING A DIFFERENCE TO LIFE

THE UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS® | School of Public Health

2024-2025 RE-AIM PUBLIC HEALTH IDEAS HACKATHON

We invite multisector, multi-institutional, cross-country participation in this innovative initiative to sensitize youth about the importance of public health and create a community of learners and leaders in public health.

Check out our website for more details on deadlines, workshops, and event updates!

Abstract Details → Word Limit 500 → Problem Statement (10 points) → Solution / Innovation Proposed (10 points) → Approach (10 points) → Impact (10 Points) → Sustainability (10 Points)

Abstract Guidelines

Word limit: 500

- Problem statement (10 pts)
  - Highlight your topic and the public health problem it addresses.
    - Background
    - Objective
    - Significance and Relevance
- Solution/Innovation Proposed (10 pts)
- Approach (10 pts)
  - Describe how you plan to address this problem
- Impact: (10 pts)
  - How would you assess?
- Sustainability: (10 pts)
  - How will you propose the sustainability of the solution?

Important Dates

Registration Deadline: January 24

Abstract Deadline: February 10

Initial Screening: February 17

Finalist Notification: March 3

Final Pitch: March 17

Winner Announcement: March 31

Evaluation Criteria

- C reative
- R esearch oriented
- E ntrepreneurial
- A ccessible
- T ransformative
- E ffective

Follow the Abstract Guidelines above to create a 500-word abstract and submit it to us by February 10, 2024!

- Go to https://forms.office.com/r/sX97cdNh5T or scan the QR Code to submit your Application.
- Identify a public health concern, develop a solution, integrate technology and begin project design.
- Follow the instructions above and on our website for writing a 500-word abstract.
- Apply and submit your abstract entry for consideration.

The top 5-10 public health ideas will be selected by the esteemed jury representing multidisciplinary team based on the CREATE Criteria.
Questions? Contact Michelle Jeu at majeu@memphis.edu