Applications & Room Selection

Applications for an Academic Year (both Fall & Spring) have a two-step process:

- 1. Initial Housing Application - Students will complete the application, including selecting residence hall preferences, requesting roommates, paying the $45 application fee and signing the housing contract agreement.
- 2. Room Selection - After completing the application, students will participate in Room Selection. During Room Selection, students select the housing assignment they want from the available spaces. That choice will generate a pending assignment, which will be reviewed and confirmed by our department.

After most spaces have been selected, room selection will close, and assignments will be made administratively by Housing & Residence Life based on availability. Applications for Spring and for Summer have a one part process (housing application).

Missing Contact

The Department of Education requires that, in addition to registering an emergency contact, students residing in on-campus housing have the option to identify confidentially an individual to be contacted by the University of Memphis in the event the student is determined to be missing for more than 24 hours.

The contact information provided will be accessible only to authorized campus officials and law enforcement and will not be disclosed outside of a missing person investigation.

If a student has identified such an individual, the University of Memphis will notify that individual no later than 24 hours after the student is determined to be missing.

Personal Preferences

Please answer the following questions. This can sometimes help to match you with potential roommates.

Roommate Matching Questions

What time do you normally go to bed?

How early do you wake up on a weekday?

How important is cleanliness and organization to you?

What are your preferences regarding shared chores/cleaning responsibilities?

Could you live with a roommate who smokes or vapes?

How much time do you plan to spend in your room?

How often do you plan to socialize with others in your room?

What are your preferences regarding studying in your room?

Student Communities

Living Learning Communities are specialized programs that combine the conventional residential experience with support from faculty, integrated resources from sponsoring departments, and a 360-degree approach to student learning. Living Learning Community members have frequent interaction with faculty and develop strong relationships with fellow students. Residents have access to many special resources, programs and activities, such as freshman orientation, seminars, tutors, mentoring programs, and smaller classes or reserved space in regular courses. In fact, many residence halls have classroom space located just a few steps from student rooms

There are numerous benefits of participating in a Living Learning Community that extend to students, parents and the University of Memphis. Research shows that learning community students have higher GPAs, are more involved, and have increased graduation rates. Additionally, participation encourages students to make meaningful connections with their peers, faculty, and university staff, ultimately assisting in their transition to college life.

Living Learning Communities offer a dedicated and distinctive themed living option to students and each community is tailored to a specific academic major or area of study. Residents maintain a genuine sense of community and receive lots of faculty interaction and guidance. All the Living Learning Communities are carefully planned and supported by University Housing staff along with the members of the community. Since all the members share interest in their community's theme, you can expect to build genuine professional relationships and life-long friends.
