SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDIES IN AGING

Section I. Scholarship Description

The Professional Network on Aging (PNA) is pleased to offer scholarships for studies in aging. The purpose of this award is to support Master's level social work, counseling, nursing, occupational or speech therapy and related studies as well as Doctoral level physical therapy studies, for those who are committed to working with seniors in Memphis metro area. Previous PNA scholarship winners are not eligible. Scholarships will be granted up to $3500 depending on need for one academic year. Applications are due by June 1 (no late entries will be considered) to be considered for the upcoming fall semester. The scholarship recipient(s) will be announced in July and awarded to the receiving applicant(s) in August.

Section II. Qualifications

1. Applicants must be graduate students who are in or have been accepted into a Master's Program in an accredited school of social work, counseling, nursing, occupational or speech therapy and related studies as well as Doctoral level physical therapy studies.
2. Applicants who plan to pursue a career in the field of gerontology.
3. Applicants who intend to work in Memphis or the surrounding areas post-graduation.

Section III. Application Process

1. An essay from the applicant that addresses his/her unique qualifications for receiving this scholarship, including experience in and dedication to the field of aging. Please elaborate on what draws you to a career involving aging and serving the 65 and over population. Explain values and principles you possess that will make you successful in the senior industry and in the career field. Provide your future career plans. (2-3 pages double-spaced preferred)
2. A short (1-2 paragraphs) statement of financial need that explains why you would benefit from being awarded a scholarship.
3. Two professional letters of recommendation.
4. Completed application.
5. Resume including employment history as well as volunteerism with the senior population.
6. Select applicants will participate in a panel interview with members of the PNA Scholarship Committee.

Section IV. References

Provide two professional references including name, address, title, agency, complete mailing address and telephone number. Reference page follows. Please make copies and give one page to each reference. Upon completion, the references may either mail their recommendations directly to the PNA Scholarship Committee (address below) or give them back to you in a sealed envelope with their name written across the seal and you mail them to the PNA Scholarship Committee.
