Take the Next Step in LiFE: Earn your degree from the University of Memphis

Apply Today: Join the many University of Memphis alumni who've earned their degrees through the LiFE program. With hundreds of majors and concentrations to choose from, you can pursue a bachelor's, master's, doctorate, or certificate online or in person. This is your chance to advance your career and unlock new opportunities. Start your journey today and become part of the UofM student network!

Online Learning: UofM Global programs are accredited, nationally recognized and 100% online. You can complete coursework when and where it's easiest for you. You will be an official Memphis Tiger, join thousands of students learning fully online, and be awarded the same University of Memphis diploma as on-the-ground students.

Personalized Support: Each student is assigned a LiFE Coach that will help determine the best path for completing your degree. Your starting point could be the LiFE Prep Academy or enrolling directly into your degree program.

Tuition Benefit: The FedEx tuition benefit offers up to $5,250 per year. A UofM Global LiFE Coach will work with you to you maximize your benefits while staying within your budget.

Prep Academy: The LiFE Prep Academy is a great opportunity for FedEx employees looking to continue their education. Complete the program, and you're guaranteed admission to the University of Memphis with 12 college credits—no exams or extra requirements needed. The Prep Academy is self-paced and fully online, with no deadlines and unlimited attempts, making it easy to learn at your own speed. It's a low-pressure way to improve your skills, especially if you're new to online learning. You'll also gain valuable knowledge in academic success, life skills, and professional development—helping you succeed in both college and your career. The LiFE Prep Academy is a flexible, supportive way to take the next step in your education.

Training Credit: Earn your degree quicker and save money with Experiential Learning Credit. Your on-the-job training or prior learning might provide college credit at a reduced cost per credit hour. This is available at the undergraduate and graduate level, though available credits can vary by program. Your LiFE Coach will review your FedEx training transcript and help assess your opportunities.

LiFE: Learning inspired by FedEx is a tuition assistance program for in person and online students, offered by FedEx in partnership with the University of Memphis.
